Excerpt from Constitution

Any involved person who is associated directly with an Ordinary Member in breeding Brahman cattle, can apply for membership as a sub-member. Such a member will be regarded as:

(i) An involved person if he or she is related in any of the following ways, namely:- as a child (also children who are related by marriage), a grandchild, a great grandchild, parent or grandparent, or a trust, provided that the trustees and the capital and income beneficiaries are an involved person, and provided that annually, the member will confirm with the Society, before 28 February, that there have been no changes in terms of the trustees and/or beneficiaries as involved persons, and provided, furthermore, that such a person is not an expelled member in terms of section 8, or if a change has occurred, this will happen with the approval of the Council in terms of section 3.3.2. Any person of the class, described in the clause, whose membership has been suspended or terminated, will not qualify as an involved person. If, on the basis of the preceding, the sub-member is disqualified, his sub-membership will lapse.

(ii) and will have the right to attend all meetings of members, including the Annual General Meeting of the Society, to participate in discussions, and have the right to vote provided that the requirements, stipulated in Clause 3.3.2 on the payment of subscription and entrance fees, have been met.
If such a sub-member does not meet the requirements, outlined in Clause 3.3.2, (All documents that are directed at such a fully authorized representative, as outlined in Clause 3.2.1, (Ordinary Member) are regarded as duly served on the partnership, trust or legal entity, and at all meetings that are attended by such a fully authorized representative on behalf of the partnership, trust or legal person, the partnership, trust or legal entity is regarded as duly represented.)

(iii) such a sub-member will merely have the right to attend all meetings of members of the Society, including the Annual General Meeting of the Society, and participate in discussions; however, the person will not have the right to vote.
